Member Memo: New Resources & Small Business Funding for Western Canada

Dear Members:

October 28, 2020

We continue to follow developments in the funding arena to support business and want to provide you with an update as this may benefit your company.

Canada United Small Business Relief Fund is now accepting applications for grants up to $5,000. This fund was established to help small businesses reopen safely or adopt digital technologies to move more of their business online.

Click here to access program guidelines and to apply.

Western Canada Business Grant

In case you missed our previous memos, there are some non-COVID related business grants available to businesses in British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba to help you with:

- Hiring & Training
- Research & Development
- Business Expansion & Exporting
- Capital & Technology Adoption

To help navigate the types of grants that are available, the Canadian Business Funding Guide was developed to help guide applicants to success with their grant application.

The guide can be accessed here. To learn more about available grants, click here.

The WRLA continues to work on your behalf through government advocacy and resource collection. If you are experiencing issues or if there are resources that you are seeking, please feel free to reach out. The better we can understand your needs, the more effectively we can respond.

Keep in touch!
